DEATH OF H. H. CARTLAND.

Entered Into Rest at 4:55 O'clock This Morning.

Mr. Cartland is dead. The Angel of Death called at 4:55 o'clock this morning, and the beloved man went peacefully and quietly to his reward. Though his death was not a surprise, it carried with it a load of sorrow that a city seldom feels.

Mr. Cartland had been lying at death's door for several days, and people in every walk of life anxiously enquired of his condition at every opportunity. He was a man in whom every man, no matter what his condition, recognized a friend, and everyone was his friend. A community is seldom blessed with such a citizen, and the death of one so beloved falls as a crushing blow, not only to his family and relatives, but to the entire community. He was a member of the Society of Friends, and a man who lived his religion, and one who fulfilled his mission on earth. One who was with him at his death says it was a glorious ending of a useful Christian life. Mr. Cartland was ready and passed away without a struggle.

The funeral services will be conducted in West Market Street church tomorrow afternoon by Rev Joseph Peele, pastor of Friends church, Rev. T. E. Wagg, pastor of Centenary M E. church, and Rev. Dr. Egbert W. Smith, pastor of the First Presbyterian church. After the services the remains will be interred in Green Hill cemetery.

Mr. Cartland was a member of the following secret orders, which will be represented at the funeral: Masons, Odd Fellows, Knights of Pythias, Knights Templar, Knights of Honor, and Junior Order United American Mechanics.

On behalf of the whole community, the Telegram extends deepest sympathy and condolence to the bereaved relatives, and especially the devoted wife and children.

God gave, and in His wisdom hath taken away.

SHORT SKETCH OF HIS LIFE.

Herbert Hardy Cartland was born at Windham, Maine, August 20, 1848. He was the son of Elisha P. and Sarah B. Cartland, both of whom have been dead for several years.

When twenty-six years old he, with a brother, came south and together they engaged in the sewing machine business in Greensboro.

Mr. H. H. Cartland twenty-three years ago engaged in the merchant tailoring business, and from that time on conducted an establishment that grew larger year by year. At his death he was perhaps the most widely known and largely patronized tailor in the State.

On July 29, 1880, he married Miss Henrietta G. Houston, of this city, and in her found a faithful and devoted wife. From this union seven children resulted. Four of them, Lee H., Edward, Ida and Herbert, survive him, and three, each of whom died when quite young, rest in Green Hill.

201 KILLED; 974 WOUNDED

Since February 4 In the Philippine Islands.

REINFORCEMENTS FOR OUR BOYS

Twelfth Infantry Arrives After a Smooth Voyage—Lieut Meyer Fell Overboard and Lost.

By Cable to the Telegram

Manila, April 14—It is known that the presence of several insurgent officers in the city has caused the strict enforcement of the order compelling all persons to retire to their homes at seven o'clock in the evening. This is to prevent any outbreak in the night. Our guards have been doubled and other precautions taken.

Lawton's expedition is moving slowly along the lake. They have taken several towns and had several skirmishes, during which five Americans have been killed and a number wounded. The Filipinos continue their night firing upon our troops, who are particularly tired of this sort of warfare.

The American losses since February 4 have been 201 killed and 974 wounded.

TWELFTH INFANTRY ARRIVES.

Manila, April 14—The United States transport Sheridan with the Twelfth Infantry aboard, has arrived after a smooth passage. Lieutenant Meyer disappeared while the ship was on her journey. The lieutenant was sleeping upon the upper deck, as the weather was extremely hot, and it is supposed that he fell overboard. Three privates and six children of privates died with pneumonia.

THE SAMOAN MUDDLE.

The Commission Will Start to Apia on the 25th.

By Cable to The Telegram.

Frankfort, April 14.—The Frankforter Zeitung publishes a dispatch from its correspondent at Berlin today stating that Lord Salisbury will be held accountable for the acuteness of the situation at Samoa. Salisbury went to Beaulin without leaving a responsible representative at London, and while at Beaulin he treated the affair in a dilitary manner. The Zeitung's London correspondent telegraphs that the British government has sent strict orders to Consul Maxas at Apia that all further action be suspended until the arrival of the joint commission.

THE THREE PARTIES AGREE.

Washington, April 14—After hearing from the British and German embassies the state department is enabled to announce that the three parties to the Berlin treaty have agreed upon the instructions to be given the Samoan commissioners, and that the commission will certainly leave for Apia on the 25th inst.

GERMANY RESPONSIBLE.

Paris, April 15—The Figaro says it is being clearly established that Germany is responsible for the Samoan trouble. The Gaulois publishes an interview with a diplomatist who declares the aggressive conduct of Consul Rose precipitated the hostilities.

THE WILKES BOND CASE.

Judge Purnell Signs a Decree in Favor of the Bondholders.

The Wilkes bond case was concluded in Circuit court last night, after an argument of a day and a half, before Judge Purnell. At the conclusion of the argument the judge said that he had heard nothing from the counsel on either side that would induce him to reconsider his opinion in the Oxford Bank case, which was similar to the Wilkes case, and he would therefore sign a decree in favor of the bondholders. Counsel for the defense gave notice of an appeal to the United States Circuit Court of Appeals and the case will be heard in Richmond on May 16th. Kerr Craig, of Salisbury, was appointed receiver by Judge Purnell.

The Vital Question.

Editor Telegram—Regardless of the fact that it has been an unusually cold winter there have been some pretty hot times in the old town. Good people have been divided in their opinions on different subjects each entitled to his opinion. There are, however, conditions in the welfare of our town which confront us and deserve, aye, demand, the thoughtful consideration of every taxpayer of Greensboro.

The question of the bond issue should engage the attention and best efforts of the people who have the welfare of Greensboro at heart. In the coming municipal election let a board of aldermen be elected who will be true to the interests of the city under all conditions. X.

BROCKMANN CONCERT.

The Audience at the Academy Last Night Captivated.

When the curtain rose last night at the Academy of Music upon probably forty of the most accomplished musicians of the city, quite a large crowd had assembled. Youth and beauty and intelligence, cultured manhood and womanhood, were there, and with the first crash of the well-disciplined orchestra, everybody settled back in his or her seat for an evening of rare enjoyment. Many were probably led out more by a desire to please friends who were to participate in the concert than through any expectation of a musical treat. But if such were there they were as speedily as agreeably surprised, for no greater treat has been accorded the music-lovers of Greensboro for many a day than was set before them by Professor Brockmann last night, and today it is the talk of the town.

For nearly three hours the audience was entertained, and dull was that soul and "fit for treason and spoils" who thought of the slip of time, or who wotted the lateness of the hour when the last incident of the program had been finished, and the curtain had fallen to rise no more.

We have not space to enter into a detailed description of each piece rendered, every one of which was eminently deserving of praise.

The duo by Misses Wood and Carraway was most touchingly beautiful in its plaintive sweetness, and the rendition was par excellence. Every body regretted that they did not respond to the repeated encores.

The "Good Night" song by Mrs. Claxton was especially fine.

Mr. Z. V. Taylor brought down the house with his impassioned solo.

The quartet rendered by Messrs. Taylor, Wheeler and A. H. and S. L. Alderman, "Annie Laura," was very good.

Professor Brockmann played a violin solo which, without doubt, no one uninspired from above could have equalled. He extracted the hidden soul of harmony from the divine instrument with genius' magic touch, and as the "linked sweetness long drawn out" floated from the violin, a deathly stillness pervaded the whole house. At the finish he was repeatedly and prolongedly encored, and he responded with another happy selection which had the effect of only intensifying the applause.

The whole program of the concert was splendid, and every player's part was superbly executed, and the fact that there is musical talent of the first water in Greensboro, was clearly evinced.

Under the continued excellent training of Prof. Brockmann Greensboro would have an orchestra of which she, as well as the state, could feel justly proud, and they will give up the talented instructor, who will take leave of our city soon, with the deepest regret.

Card of Thanks.

The members of the Brockmann Orchestra desire to return their most hearty thanks to all the good friends who so kindly assisted them in giving their concert last night, and who contributed so much to its success. They also express their deep appreciation to the audience who came out to hear the concert.

Very respectfully,
The Brockmann Orchestra.

OPPOSITION IN ALABAMA

To The Proposed Constitutional Convention is Growing.

RE-APPOINTMENT OF EWART.

It Will, Of Course, Continue Until The Assembling Of The Next Session Of Congress.

Special to the Telegram.

Washington, April 14—Opposition among Alabama democrats to the proposed constitutional convention is apparently growing. A prominent democrat from the state who was in the city Thursday stated that the opposition to the holding of the convention in many of the counties of Alabama is intense, and in some of them a majority, he thinks, of the democrats will vote against authorizing the convention, if the election is held. At Mobile, Alabama, it is said that nearly every white democrat of prominence is opposed to the constitutional convention. The opposition among democrats is also especially strong in such counties as Cullman, Clarke and Madison. The gentleman stated in his opinion if the legislature were to act upon the constitutional question again, it is doubtful if the call for a convention would be agreed to, unless some important modifications are made.

In view of the opposition aroused among democrats in Alabama to the holding of the constitutional convention, there is said to be a strong probability that the governor may call an extra session of the legislature for the purpose of again referring the question to that body for their further consideration. If the extra session should be called there is strong reason to believe that a majority of the members of both branches would be ready to vote for the repeal of the act of the last session of the legislature calling the convention.

The gentleman giving the information believes that rather than run the risk of having the call for a constitutional convention defeated at the polls, if it becomes clear that a majority of the Democrats are opposed to it, that the extra session will be called, and the act repealed.

President McKinley yesterday settled the controversy regarding the reappointment of Judge Ewart, and the appointment was announced from the white house This appointment will, of course, continue until the assembling of the next congress when Judge Ewart's name will again be sent to the senate. The fight during the next session against his confirmation will be continued, but it will be difficult to keep off action, as Senator Pritchard will press the nomination from the assembling of the senate until a vote is taken. As the next session is a long session the prospects are that a vote will be secured. Of course it is impossible to tell at this time how the senate stands, but the reappointment of Judge Ewart proves that in spite of the charges which have been made against him, he still retains the absolute confidence of the president and his advisors.

It is said that in Virginia, North Carolina, and other of the southern states that an agreement will be entered into between the republican and democratic leaders for a division of the appointments of census supervisors and enumerators. It is expected that those who will be selected to take the next census in the south will be evenly divided among the democrats and republicans.

Applications for positions in the census continue to come in at the census headquarters in large numbers, although no appointments will be made for some time. The applications for positions in the clerical force of the office are also beginning to be received at the census bureau.

General Joseph Wheeler has accepted an invitation to deliver an address before the University of Virginia at Lexington next June.

Democrats from North Carolina coming to Washington are of the opinion that State Chairman Simmons will succeed Senator Marion Butler in the United States senate. They also believe that Mayor Waddill of Wilmington will be the democratic nominee for governor to succeed Russell.

THE PRIMARIES.

The call has been issued for the democratic primaries to meet in the different wards on April 27th. The question has been asked if it was put off to so late a day in order to allow the same men to hold over. We will say that we believe the executive committee acted for the best interest of the people of Greensboro when it fixed the date for the primaries. Why? Because in the primaries the people have a chance to be heard and putting the meeting of the same off as long as possible gives the people an opportunity to think matters over carefully. If they want the present aldermen elected again they will have ample time to fully decide and say so at the primaries. If a majority desire a change they will have an opportunity to discuss men and measures and vote for their choice at the primaries.

The object of the primaries is to get the will and wishes of the people. That is the place to decide who shall legislate for the city and control its affairs. That is the place for democrats to do their work among themselves—settle their own differences. When the primaries have done their work it is the duty of all democrats to stand by it, whether they were in the majority or not. The position of city alderman is an important, but a thankless one, and few men will seek it. It is a case where the position hunts the man, and the people, the custodions of the office, should come together in the primaries and select the best men. Few men will seek it, but few men will refuse when their fellow citizens, reposing confidence in them, call them to thus serve their city.

It is a common thing to hear men declare they will not vote for such and such a man if nominated. That is the wrong spirit. "In the multitude of counsel there is wisdom," therefore let there be a free interchange of views and let there be a full attendence on the primaries that the will of the majority may be known; and when that is done all should unite to elect the choice of the primaries.

If you are dissatisfied, do your work in the primaries; and when they are over leave your dissatisfaction there.

The music of the saw and hammer, the swish of the paint brush, the slap of the trowel and the chug of the pick proclaim the industrial activity that permeates our city. Since the distressingly bad weather has ended business in Greensboro is greatly improving. The mud has dried out, and the business man, impatient to return to his business more quickly than he has for a long time been wont to do, brings from its winter quarters the silent steed and flies away up the street with the speed of the wind.

Last night about 11:30, when almost all the population had retired and a tranquil stillness enwrapped the city, the reflection of 34's powerful electric headlight could be seen on the western horizon as the train approached the city, yet several miles distant. The sight was very interesting, and worth sitting up to see.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver, of Philadeldhia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows; "I was in a most dreadful conditien tion. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides; no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying Electric Bitters: and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents per bottle at C. E. Holton's drug store.

Boils and Pimples Give Warning.

AN UNFAILING SIGN THAT NATURE IS APPEALING FOR HELP.

When Nature is overtaxed, she has her own way of giving notice that assistance is needed. She does not ask for help until it is impossible to get along without it. Boils and pimples are an indication that the system is accumulating impurities which must be gotten rid of; they are an urgent appeal for assistance—a warning that can not safely be ignored.

To neglect to purify the blood at this time means more than the annoyance of painful boils and unsightly pimples. If these impurities are allowed to remain, the system succumbs to any ordinary illness, and is unable to withstand the many ailments which are so prevalent during spring and summer.

Mrs. L. Gentile, 2004 Second Avenue, Seattle, Wash., says: "I was afflicted for a long time with pimples, which were very annoying, as they disfigured my face fearfully. After using many other remedies in vain, S. S. S. promptly and thoroughly cleansed my blood, and now I rejoice in a good complexion, which I never had before."

Capt. W. H. Dunlap, of the A. G. S. R. R., Chattanooga, Tenn., writes: "Several boils and carbuncles broke out upon me, causing great pain and annoyance. My blood seemed to be in a riotous condition, and nothing I took seemed to do any good. Six bottles of S. S. S. cured me completely and my blood has been perfectly pure ever since."

is the best blood remedy, because it is purely vegetable and is the only one that is absolutely free from potash and mercury. It promptly purifies the blood and thoroughly cleanses the system, builds up the general health and strength. It cures Scrofula, Eczema, Cancer, Rheumatism, Tetter Boils, Sores, etc., by going direct to the cause of the trouble and forcing out all impure blood.

"A word to the wise is sufficient" and a word from the wise should be sufficient, but you ask, who are the wise? Those who know. The oft-repeated experience of trust-worthy persons may be taken for knowledge. Mr. W.M. Terry says Chamberlain's Cough Remedy gives better satisfaction than any other in the market. He has been in the drug business at Elkton, Ky., for twelve years; has sold hundreds of bottles of this remedy and nearly all other cough medicines manufactured, which shows conclusively that Chamberlain's is the most satisfactory to the people, and is the best. Key to the Situation

Is This; One might as well try to lift themselves in a basket as to try to undersell us. Cheapest Store on Earth is the combination that unlocks the pocketbooks of the masses. J. N. Ingram,

530 South Elm

To the Citizens of Greensboro and the Public at Large:

We respectfully announce that Messrs. Boone & Bogart, owners and proprietors of the Greensboro Pressing Club, are doing our work in the way of alterations, etc., and that same is giving perfect satisfaction. We gladly recommend these young men to all who may need their services, and with the assurance that you will get value received. The Pressing Club's force is composed of expert tailors—every individual an artist in his line.

A trial will convince you further than our statement. Give them your work. Very Respectfully,

Rankin, Chisholm, Stroud & Rees

CLOTHIERS.

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

Soups—Anderson's concentrated. Lindau's ad.

Mrs. John A. Dodson arrived at noon from Charlotte.

Ingram enumerates a select line of eatables in his space today.

Mrs. Heaven and daughter left at noon today for Washington.

Howard B. Sterrett returned last night from a business trip and will spend a few days resting.

Mrs. Mollie McGill-Rosenberg and Frank McGill, of Galveston, Tex , are spending a few days with the McGills in South Greensboro.

The Odd Fellows of the city are requested to meet at their hall tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock to attend the funeral of Mr. H. H. Cartland in a body.

Out of respect to Mr H. H. Cartland, the leading merchants of the city will close their stores from 2:30 to 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon to attend the funeral services of their lamented fellow business man.

The ladies of St. Barnabas parish were out in full force again yesterday afternoon. The young people met at Mr. Ellett's on Forbis street last evening, and there are wars and rumors of wars of which the public will doubtless be apprised ere long.

Meeting at the Baptist Church.

There was a very deep interest at the Baptist church last night. Mr. Love preached a most earnest sermon, packed with soul saving gospel truth. He resorts to no manipulation, but preaches the word and rules as the Holy Spirit to make it effective. At the conclusion of the sermon, when an invitation was given, quite a large number came forward confessing Christ. The church is in earnest and at work as it has seldom been. Everything seems to indicate that there will be a great meeting.

To Greet The Raleigh.

General R. F. Hoke, of Raleigh, the head of the delegation appointed by the mayor of that city to greet the cruiser Raleigh on her arrival at New York, passed through the city last evening enroute to the latter city to make preparations for the event. Gen. Hoke is a br ther-in-law of Mayor Van Wyke of Greater New York.

Remarkable Rescue

Mrs. Michael Curtain, Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement that she caught cold which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. He told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption and that no medicine would cure her. Her druggist suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption; she bought a bottle and to her delight found herself benefitted from first dose. She continued its use and after taking six bottles, found herself sound and well; now does her own housework, and is as well as she ever was.—Free trial bottles of this Great Discovery at C. E. Holton's drug store. Large bottles 50 cents and $1.00.

MISS BYERS ENTERTAINS.

The Bacherlor Girls Have a Pleasant Meeting at Her Home.

One of the most pleasant and enjoyable meetings the Bacherlor Girls have yet had was held yesterday afternoon at the home of Miss Byers on Summit avenue. The "Picture Game," in which a collection of photographs of eminent personages were displayed and the guests given five minutes in which to guess whose photograph each was, was played. The game proved interesting and amusing and the Bachelors made the contest lively. Miss Alice Small was the successful contestant and carried off the prize.

After this the guests spent a pleasant hour at cards, playing whist, euchre, old maids and hearts.

A Good Woman Dies.

Mrs. W. G. Sapp, of Jamestown, died yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock. She had been sick for some time. She was the sister of Mrs. M. E. Howard and Mr. Jos. M. Reese, the latter one of the editors of the Daily Record. Both were at her bed side when the grim reaper came, to relieve her suffering. The funeral services were conducted at Deep River church at 2 o'clock this afternoon. The Telegram extends sympathy to the bereaved relatives.

Shrier's First Offerings.

We take pleasure this season in presenting for your consideration what we consider the finest assortment of Form-Fitting Shoes for men and ladies, misses and children, ever shown in Greensboro.

Our lines for Spring are now complete and only await the prestige of your approval.

Every new idea in quality and finish, ease and comfort, grace of style and excellence of workmanship are embodied in this season's production.

Owing to our central location and the nominal expense required to conduct our business, we are enabled to sell our goods 25 per cent cheaper than any house in Greensboro, quality and make considered.

The question where to buy good and reliable goods at the right price is a very important one. We feel if you call on us, we can answer the question to your entire satisfaction, and make a lasting impression besides.

Do not be deluded by the thought that the assortments in the large cities are greater. True, the quantity is greater, but the assortment is no better, and the price is correspondingly higher, owing to the increased expense.

Kindly call on us at your earliest convenience and allow us to prove to you that these statements are true.
